POLES GROW WEARY OF WAR ON SOVIETS

Prefer to Be in Position to Stop German Aggression.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun from the London Times Service.

Copyright, 1919, all rights reserved.

WARSAW, Oct. 20.—The Poles are between the devil and the deep sea. The question of stopping the war with Soviet Russia has reached the state of a parliamentary discussion. Although actually only the Socialists uphold the idea of making peace with the present Bolshevik Government, their campaign gains force through the fact that they are the only party with a definite programme.

The war is costing the country as much as it spends on everything else, and the reasons for which it is being waged are not clear. If the Allies are not going to fight the Bolsheviks the Poles may well ask themselves why should they. The Government wishes to be in a position to face Germany unembarrassed by a campaign on the eastern front.

Germany is still using all possible expedients to avoid carrying out the terms of the treaty. Fresh demands have been formulated for a comprehensive revision in favor of Germany of the Polish frontier. The Poles are now being detached into the plebiscite area. If a case should arise in which the Allies would not be able to enforce the terms of the treaty in respect to Poland the Poles want to be in a position to do it themselves.

ALLY TROOPS MOVE TO WESTERN THRACE

Greeks First Displace Bulgarians Under Treaty.

SALONICA, Oct. 20.—Troop movements for the occupation of territories in western Thrace, which are to be evacuated by the Bulgarians in accordance with the terms of the Allies, were begun today. An official report from Greek General headquarters says:

"Units of the Ninth Greek Division were set in motion to-day with a view to the occupation of the district of Xanthi (Turkish Eski), seventy miles northwest of Dedeağatch, in western Thrace. All western Thrace, which will be evacuated by the Bulgarians troops according to the treaty of peace, will be occupied by allied troops."

The draft treaty, as yet unsigned by the Bulgarian and allied delegation, provided for the cession to the Allies for future disposition of western Thrace. This solution having been adopted because it had not been possible to come to an agreement in the Peace Conference as to the extent of the cession to Greece and the exact nature of Bulgaria's economic access to the Aegean. The treaty stipulated that whatever solution is adopted with regard to western Thrace an economic outlet to the Aegean will be guaranteed to Bulgaria. The Powers having the right to return all or part of the territory to Bulgaria, transfer part to Greece, incorporate the remainder with eastern Thrace in an international state or to make any other solution ultimately agreed upon.

SAYS AIR FORCE GIRLS LED IMPROPER LIVES

Daughter of Baron Penrhyn Alleges Camp Immorality.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Hon. Violet Douglas-Pennant, daughter of Baron Penrhyn, testifies to-day before a House of Lords committee in an inquiry into her dismissal as commandant of the Women's Royal Air Force, asserted that girls at the Hurst Park camp had led most improper lives. They were permitted night passes and taken to London in Government cars and brought back, drunk sometimes, the following morning. The officer in command, she added, behaved most improperly with a woman officer.

Miss Douglas-Pennant admitted that she knew of no specific cases of immorality in any camp, but said she had heard of bad conditions existing in many camps.

The dismissal of Miss Douglas-Pennant caused a great stir in England. Her repeated demands for an investigation were for a long time denied, the head of the Air Force asserting her dismissal was for the good of the service and should not be reviewed.

BRITONS WORRY OVER MONEY.

New Angle to Problem—Found Note Signature "Undignified."

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun from the London Times Service.

Copyright, 1919, all rights reserved.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—People in England are disturbed over the signature on the new Treasury note, the equivalent of the old sovereign. The old issue carried the signature of Sir John Bradbury, so firm and clear that the notes were familiarly known as "Bradburys". The signature of F. N. W. Fisher, the new Secretary of the Treasury, is scrawled, undignified and quite unintelligible. It is therefore hardly likely that pound notes in the future will be known as "Fishers".

BILLS BECOME LAWS UNDER 10 DAY LIMIT

President's Illness Prevents Him From Signing Them.

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Four bills passed by Congress during the last month have become laws without the President's signature because of his illness. The ten day limit on several other minor bills will expire this week. The prohibition laws will become effective without signature or veto Tuesday of the following week.

The anti-profiteering amendments to the food control laws have been delayed by technical errors, but probably will reach the White House to-morrow. The word "and" appeared in one place in the bill as passed when "or" should have been used. In another place "the treasury of the District of Columbia" was referred to instead of the United States Treasury.

The ten day limit after which under the Constitution the four bills became laws without Executive approval expired on all measures during the last week, and all will appear in a summary of Congressional legislation to be issued to-morrow as Federal statutes.

The most important of the measures is the bill appropriating $17,000,000 additional for the construction of the Camp Humphreys engineer camp project, which was halted under the last year's appropriation. The bill authorizes the completion of the camp. Another bill authorizes the completion of the Camp Humphreys engineer camp project, which was halted under the last year's appropriation. The bill authorizes the completion of the camp.

PRINCE RUPPRECHT TO FACE TRIAL BY ALLIES

About 600 German Officers in All to Be Cited.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, and a number more of the greatest names of royalty and nobility in the "Almanach de Gotha," figures on lists of German army officers whose surrender for trial for common law crimes in France and Belgium will be demanded in accordance with the terms of the Versailles treaty, says La Liberté to-day. The newspaper states that the list, which is now approaching completion, includes about 600 names, each name being accompanied by a detailed account of the offences charged and the evidence upon which the charges are based.

The Supreme Council, it is said, will decide soon the date upon which the list is to be presented to Germany, according to the protocol to the treaty, must be within two months after the treaty comes into effect.

Assured 55 Votes for Reservations

Republicans Convinced No Democratic Combination Can Defeat Them.

WILL BE MADE STRONGER

Lodge Poll Shows That Six Members of Wilson Party Are With Him.

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Out of the chaos of the past three months, discussion of the peace treaty and the League of Nations covenant has clarified completely. The treaty and covenant will be ratified by the Senate in a resolution which will make perfectly certain the American interpretation of every moot point and in which reservations of the most vital and effective character will be embodied.

The Republicans will cast their solid army of forty-nine votes for reservations, and that six Democrats will vote with them. The period of possible compromise has passed, he said, and further, after the committee's own reservations are written into the resolution of ratification, additional reservations defining America's position in regard to representation in the assembly of the League of Nations and the attitude of the United States with regard to the Shantung award will be made clear.

FRANCE PASSES LAW TO PROTECT SILVER

Speculators Corner Coins for Exchange Trading.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—To preserve the specie circulation from raids by individuals seeking to profit by the difference between the bullion value of coins and the exchange value of the general circulation, the Journal Officiel will publish to-morrow a law penalizing the melting, recoinage, or withdrawal from circulation of the national money.

The disappearance of silver money from circulation has resulted in such a shortage of small change that many restaurants in Paris posted notices to-day that customers must make their own change or accept postage stamps in place of silver.

The disappearance of silver is variously explained. A prominent banker said to-day that the principal cause was the fact that the metal in silver coins is worth more than the face value of the coin, making it profitable for people using silver in the arts and industries to melt coin instead of buying silver in bars. Another explanation is that importers find it to their advantage to pay for purchases in countries like Switzerland in silver, which commands a premium over paper money.

A third explanation is the tendency of peasants to accumulate silver, as formerly they did with gold when gold was in circulation. The present state of circulation is aggravated by a tendency of small shopkeepers who sell goods in small quantities to hoard small change in the form of entirely running out of it.

Still another cause is that the enormous increase in admissions to the race courses, which are paid largely in silver coin, has resulted in the concentration of thousands of small coins in the hands of a few persons. A majority of the authorities, however, are of the opinion that speculation and the use of silver money for industrial purposes are the principal causes of the shortage.

W. W. LAID PLANS FOR STEEL STRIKE

amendment to his statements. They pursued a line of questions to determine whether he would follow his doctrine of non-resistance to its logical conclusion, but were unable to satisfy themselves what that conclusion would be.

"You would not advocate resistance if the army of an enemy came here and took possession of this country?" demanded the chairman (Haley). "I would not. I consider it would be better to have the Government taken over than to sacrifice lives in defending it," was the reply.

"If a man should undertake by violence to steal the coat off your back you would not resist?" asked Senator Jones (N. M.).

"No, but I would reason with him and try to persuade him not to take it," was the reply.

"The A. F. of L. Margolis continued: 'If a man should undertake by violence to steal the coat off your back you would not resist?' asked Senator Jones (N. M.).

"No, but I would reason with him and try to persuade him not to take it," was the reply.
